RULE NO. 16

Powers and duties of subunits of the committee

The chairman of the committee is authorized to establish appropriately named subunits, such as task forces, composed of members of the committee, for any purpose, measure or matter; one member of each such subunit shall be designated chairman of the subunit by the chairman of the committee. All such subunits shall be considered ad hoc subcommittees of the committee. The rules of the committee shall be the rules of any subunit of the committee, so far as applicable, or as otherwise directed by the chairman of the committee. Each subunit of the committee is authorized to meet, hold hearings, receive evidence, and to require, by subpoena or otherwise, the attendance and testimony of such witnesses and the production of such books, records, correspondence, memorandums, papers, and documents, as it deems necessary, and to report to the full committee on all measures or matters for which it was created. Chairmen of subunits of the committee shall set meeting dates with the approval of the chairman of the full committee, with a view toward avoiding simultaneous scheduling of committee and subunit meetings or hearings wherever possible. It shall be the practice of the committee that meetings of subunits not be scheduled to occur simultaneously with meetings of the full committee. In order to ensure orderly and fair assignment of hearing and meeting rooms, hearings and meetings should be arranged in advance with the chairman through the clerk of the committee.

RULE NO. 17

Other procedures and regulations

The chairman of the full committee may establish such other procedures and take such actions as may be necessary to carry out the foregoing rules or to facilitate the effective operation of the committee.

RULE NO. 18

Designation of clerk of the committee

For the purposes of these rules and the Rules of the House of Representatives, the staff director of the committee shall act as the clerk of the committee.

TRIBUTE TO LOY SMITH

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from Tennessee [Mr. DUNCAN] is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. DUNCAN. Mr. Speaker, Tennessee has lost one of its leading citizens and a truly great American, Loy Smith. Loy passed away on Sunday after suffering a heart attack while working with one of his great loves, his horses. He was 68.

Loy was a longtime close friend of both my late father and me and one of our strongest supporters. He served for 14 years as a State Representative from our home district in the Tennessee House of Representatives.

He rose to the rank of House Republican leader from 1978 to 1980. He then voluntarily left elective office to devote more time to his family and his many business interests. He remained active in politics, however, always interested in good government and in doing his part.

He served as Knox County Republican chairman from 1990 to 1992 and was one of the finest leaders our party ever had. Loy was active in many other aspects of community life, too. He was a deacon of the Thorngrove Christian Church and was a past president of the Carter Optimist Club.

He was a member of the Knoxville Elks Lodge, the Odd Fellows, the Thorngrove Community Club, the Volunteer Carriage Club, the Sons of the Revolution and the Pascal Carter Memorial Park Association.

His first love was his family, and he is survived by his wife Lonna Rhea, his children, daughter Scottie and sons, David, Jim, and Jeff, and several in-laws, grandchildren, nieces, and nephews.

After his family, his strongest feelings were bound up with the Republican Party. He was a very loyal Republican and very conservative in his philosophy. He believed very strongly in the things that made this Nation great, and he especially believed in our great free enterprise system.

He was a vice president of and worked for the John Bailey Insurance Co. for 40 years. He also founded with his sons the Southeast Equipment Co. and was the owner of other businesses such as the Kay's Ice Cream Shops chain.

The Tennessee State legislature adopted a resolution Monday praising Loy Smith as, quote, "a man of great wisdom and compassion, earning the universal respect and admiration of his peers."

State Senator Ben Atchley, a longtime friend and associate of Loy's, said this: "Loy had a strong sense of the situation. He had the wisdom of understanding and of understanding the end result. He could get to the bottom line in a hurry, and he was a strong force in Republican politics."

Loy was a graduate of Carter High School. He volunteered to serve as a paratrooper in the U.S. Army and then received a business degree from the University of Tennessee.

He was a patriotic man who loved this country. More importantly, Loy Smith was simply a good man who helped countless numbers of people. He was not famous nationally, I suppose, but he was the type of man who has made this Nation the great Nation that it is today.

He did not live his life on the sidelines. He was in the arena in every possible way, and he truly made his mark.

Loy Smith will be missed most especially by his family and also by me and many, many others, I would say perhaps thousands of others. If this Nation had more people like Loy Smith, it would be a much better and kinder and stronger place. He lived his life to the fullest, and he served his country well.

HEALTH INSURANCE FOR CHILDREN

The SPEAKER pro tempore. (Mr. GOODLATTE). Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from New Jersey [Mr. PALLONE] is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. PALLONE. Mr. Speaker, in December I and about 30 other Democrats sent a letter to President Clinton requesting that he include a program to provide assistance to the Nation's 10 million uninsured children in his budget that he would submit to Congress, and I am naturally very pleased that in his State of the Union Address tonight the President will announce a proposal to have Medicaid cover the 10 million
